Deputy Town Manager Marc Orlando Earns Designation of Credentialed Government Manager; Also Appointed to Regional Economic Development Council

Deputy Town Manager Marc Orlando recently received a credentialed manager designation from the Washington, D.C.-based International City/County Management Association (ICMA). ICMA has only credentialed approximately 1,300 local government management professionals worldwide.

Orlando was also recently appointed to a Market Impact Council for the regional joint Chapters of Urban Land Institute South Carolina, Charlotte and Research Triangle. In this role, Orlando investigates incentive programs, infrastructure requirements and work force needs for communities in the Carolinas, when a large employer settles in a community.

As deputy town manager of Bluffton, Orlando has oversight of economic development and is the executive director of Bluffton's Public Development Corporation. Orlando has worked for Bluffton since 2004.
